

For Immediate Release

CSI expands with new Joint Venture!

Birmingham, AL - Dec 1, 2009

CSI continues to expand our transportation capabilities by merging the operations of Southeastern Insurance Managers with our operations under the new name of CSI Transportation.

This new joint venture combines the various carriers that CSI represents and programs offered with the outstanding personnel of Southeastern Insurance Managers. Phil Fisher and John Williams have multiple years of experience in the Transportation industry. Both served in various positions at RLI Transportation. CSI represents various carriers offering Transportation coverage of all types. CSI also has several MGU programs to offer Motor Truck Cargo and other coverage as well that will be brought to the new company.

Under this new Joint-Venture we can write various types of Transportation including:

- ◆ Auto Liability
- ◆ Physical Damage
- ◆ Excess Auto Liability
- ◆ Motor Truck Cargo
- ◆ Workers' Compensation
- ◆ General Liability

Additionally, we have vast capabilities in the Environmental arena and can service accounts that need the MCS 90 endorsement as well. This joint venture, along with our recent acquisition of JC Shannon Insurance Services in California, is a great addition for CSI and will enable us to dramatically increase our ability to service all your Transportation risks.

Our goal is to continue to grow and become more of an asset to your operation. We are striving to do just that on a daily basis by bringing you the best available Transportation product .

Thank you again for your business and support. For more detailed information please contact:
